How hard is it for you to do the right thing? I imagine it's not very hard when you're by yourself or with just your family. Does that change when you are around other people?...especially the "in" crowd? We all want to be well-liked, we want to be the "cool" ones, but doing the right thing doesn't always put us in that position, does it?

Jesus tells his disciples in our gospel message from Matthew "So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops...Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. Even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows."

The truth will always come out so it's better to tell the truth and do the right thing the first time. God knows your heart and loves you so very much! God even knows how many hairs are on your head; there's nothing we can keep a secret from God. So, even though telling the truth and doing the right thing won't always make you popular, know that God is always with you and that you do not have to be afraid to do what is right.

Loving God, you sent your Son, Jesus to show us a better way to live. Help us to do what is right in your eyes. Amen.
