April 2022 “Grace Greetings”

Mission Statement:

We are a community of believers in Christ called to be servants to all people.

What Should We Be Giving?

Each week in worship, I say something along the lines of “everything we have is a gift from God, and we are called to use those gifts to do God’s work in the world.” I usually go on to say that financially supporting the ministries of Grace through a one-time or sustaining (weekly/monthly) gift is just one way to do that, but it is by far not the only way. There are so many organizations that you could support who do great work, whether they talk about that work in relation to God or not. Because there are so many options, it can be hard to choose how much and where to give.

Thinking about your charitable contributions in terms of a proportion or percentage of your total income can help keep things in perspective and really helps with budget planning. In the second week of “6 Weeks on Money,” we were encouraged to choose how we allocated our money (see 3 options pictured)—what we were already doing or what we wanted to start doing.

Maybe you have never thought about your income this way before, but it helpful in making sure you don’t live beyond your means and have savings when an emergency or other unexpected expense comes up. It can help us acknowledge that money is a tool/gift from God, but is not the end-all-be-all and therefore shouldn’t have power over us.

The idea of giving 10% (a tithe) comes from the Bible (see Genesis 14:20, Genesis 28:22, Leviticus 27:30-32), but is never set up as an obligation in the New Testament. Actually, in the early church 100% giving to the community was expected (see Acts 4:32), but that is another story. However, the church continues to use 10% as a benchmark, a level of giving to grow towards and even beyond.

So, what SHOULD you be giving? There is no SHOULD, no set amount or percentage, but we are called to be generous in how we use God’s gifts to do God’s work in the world. You will have to discern exactly what that means for yourself.

OPTION 1

Practical & Balanced

Give	10%	Great place to start. Where can you go from here?
Keep	20%	Dreams, goals, and projects. Long-term and short-term.
Spend	70%	Live on 70% if you’re able to keep 20% and give 10%.
Debt		See Option 3 below and Week 5 of Six Weeks on Money.

OPTION 2

The Giving Step-Up Plan

Give	1%	Increase by 1% monthly.
Keep	20%	See Money Moves 1-3 to systematize your savings.
Spend	70%	Giving and keeping allows for you to live on 70%.
Debt		See below and worksheet in Week 5.

OPTION 3

Kill That Debt

Give	1-10%	Everyone can experience the joy of giving regardless of debt.
Keep	2-5%	Can be adjusted over time. Increase as you eliminate debt.
Spend	50-65%	Reduce expense to get out of debt quicker. Very few regret this.
Debt	20-40%	Week 5 includes everything you need to make a plan to eliminate debt.

God Bless.
Pastor Leslie Weber

From the Council

At our March Council Meeting, we voted to let the mask requirement to be less restrictive. It is up to the individual and how comfortable they feel being in a group if they want to go maskless. Council will keep this on our agenda to revisit risk mitigation measures depending on how the numbers and variant of COVID develops. We have opened up the Passing of Peace. Every pew can be is open, and we will start to exit through the Narthex.

Starting Palm Sunday (April 10), we will resume two worship services, the Contemporary at 8:30am and the Traditional at 11am. With more service means more need for worship servers, especially tech hosts. Please see Rich Fraenkel if you want to volunteer.

Fellowship Committee volunteers will be prepacking breakfast bags so that we can safely and easily gather for Easter Breakfast at 9:45am on April 17th.

Starting Palm Sunday, Pastor will be leading an inter-generational Sunday School class in between worship services (at 9:45am).

After Easter, we will resume in-person gatherings on Wednesday Night Bible Study, although there will continue to be a Zoom option as well.

Altar Guild will have their first meeting of the year.

April's Council Meeting will be on Zoom.

The Inclusive Bathroom project is complete. Thank you to Kris McClellan, Beth Cloud, and Mike Olson for all the help and support for this project. This project turned out great! Kris Peterson has done a wonderful job in leading the 6 Weeks of Money. It is a very enlightening course. Plus, the homework is fun.

How to Talk with Your Kids about Good Friday

It can be difficult to teach your children about something as serious and sad as Good Friday. Where does one even begin? Sarah Raymond Cunningham, author of This Is the Church, offers practical advice that you can use to begin this conversation with your children.

Tips to Celebrate Easter's Spiritual Meaning with Kids

Between chocolate, eggs, and a certain furry animal who likes to hide them both, it's easy to lose sight of what the Easter holiday is all about. These are some of our favorite tips to help teach your kids about the spiritual meaning of Easter while still engaging in secular traditions.

April's Music Moment

Grace Music is on YouTube!

<https://youtube.com/channel/UC1lflH075yHXrLE-mI0c8xQ>

- ◇ On Palm Sunday (April 10), during the late/traditional worship service, we will sing a new song: "Lamb of God Most Holy" (ACS #932). You can listen to it at: <https://youtu.be/tBcEIB9x3KY>.
- ◇ On Palm Sunday (April 10), during the late/traditional worship service, we will also sing "A Lamb Goes Uncomplaining Forth" (ELW #340) Read on to learn a bit about this hymn:

"[This hymn has been called] 'the model hymn of all Passion hymns'...Wolf Krötke, who spent time in an East German prison... [said of the hymn] '...“He will be a spring of water for my thirst, a companion with a word for my loneliness”–just for...[stanza 8, not in ELW], I love this hymn. “A companion with a word”–that means to me all words about our experience of God. They broaden the space that has been allotted us. They turned the couple of square meters in front of my wooden bench into the wide-open spaces in which God sets our feet’...Most congregants do not come from a prisoner's physical location, but the perspective of being closed in is known to everybody. Gerhardt's hymn...is about freedom in Christ." (Paul Westermeyer, Hymnal Companion to ELW, p. 135-6)
- ◇ On Easter Sunday (April 17), during the late/traditional worship service, we will sing a new Song: ACS #937 "Earth, Earth, Awake" by Herman G. Stuempfle, Jr. & Sally Ann Morris. You can listen to it at: <https://youtu.be/n6j-CdgnFgo>
- ◇ On Sunday, April 24, during the early/contemporary worship service, we will sing a new song: "Rattle!" by Elevation Worship. You can listen to it at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xrAdbH28glg>
- ◇ On Sunday, April 24, during the late/traditional worship service, "Alleluia! Christ Is Arisen (¡Aleluya! Cristo resucitó) (ELW #375). Read on to learn a bit about this hymn:

"Unlike the planet-based system in English, Spanish names the first day of the week for the Lord: domingo. Happily, the translation of this hymn makes the 'Lord's day' association clear, because much of what is valuable about this Latin American text is its celebration of this day's continuing significance...All the events narrated in the stanzas occur on the first day of the week: the women coming to the tomb, Mary Magdalene's being sent to tell that Christ is alive, the gathering of the disciples, [Thomas'] meeting with the risen Christ...the refrain declares good news to all. These examples are intended to affirm a great truth in the Easter message: 'Christ comes again, and every Lord's day.'" (Carl P. Daw, Jr., Glory to God: A Companion, p. 255-6)

"Shining God's Light in the Darkness"

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." John 1:5
