

Alleluia! Christ is risen! Hepi Easter!

Grace and peace to you from our Risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on this Second Sunday of Easter! The staff of the Virginia Synod are thankful to be leading worship this day to proclaim the resurrection and to celebrate our relationship with the New Guinea Islands District, Evangelical Lutheran Church in Papua New Guinea, our Global Companion Synod.

The liturgy for today comes from Book of Worship – ELCPNG, “The Service without Communion” and is combined with the Revised Common Lectionary. The gospel for the day will be read in English and text Tok Pisin (language of PNG) will be shared as well. Pastor Kelly Bayer Derrick, Assistant to the Bishop, preaches. She traveled to PNG in 2019 and was the first woman to preach in the Islands District. The music draws from our shared faith in Jesus and includes lyrics in both Tok Pisin and English. We encourage you to try your best to sing along in Tok Pisin. Make a joyful Easter noise unto the Lord!

You’re invited to make an offering to the Virginia Synod’s Scholarship Program to help fund education for the children of pastors in PNG. You can do this online by going to www.vasynod.org and then click on “Give” in the upper right corner.

+ Gathering +

The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

Invocation: We call on the name of God.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Call to Worship

Christ is risen! Christ is truly risen! Alleluia!

The Confession: We bring our sins to God.

Friends in the Lord: Let us come to God, our loving Father, bringing to God all our sins. God is merciful and ready to forgive.

Second Sunday of Easter—April 11, 2021—9:45am Worship via Zoom

Mighty God, our Maker and Redeemer, we poor sinners confess to you that we are full of sin and in need of your forgiveness. We have sinned in many ways: in our thinking, our speaking, and our doing. We look to you alone for help and beg for your mercy.

Loving Father, you gave your only Son, Jesus, to die for us. For his sake accept us and forgive us. By the power of your Spirit renew us and strengthen us, so that we may love you more and serve you better.

God is our loving Father, Who has already seen our need and has sent Jesus to die in our place. Again Jesus tells us: "Your sins are forgiven." Believe God's promise, receive God's peace and live as God's people.

Hymn of Praise: Dispela De (This is the Day) Tok Pisin (Pidgin)

Dispela de, dispela de
God i givim mi. God i givim mi.
Mi amamas, mi amamas
God stap wantaim yu. God stap wantaim mi.

Dispela de God i givim mi.
Mi amamas God stap wanta-aim yu.
Dispela de, dispela de God givim yumi.

Psalm 133

- ¹How good and how pleasant it is,
when kindred live together in unity!
- ²It is like fine oil upon the head, flowing down upon the beard, upon the beard of Aaron, flowing down upon the collar of his robe.
- ³It is like the dew of Hermon flowing down upon the hills of Zion.
For there the Lord has commanded the blessing: life forevermore.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, with joy we celebrate the day of our Lord's resurrection. By the grace of Christ among us, enable us to show the power of the resurrection in all that we say and do, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

+ Word +

God speaks to us in scripture reading, preaching, and song.

First Reading: Acts 4:32-35

While the apostles testified to others about the resurrection of Jesus, the early Christian community shared what they owned, or sold their possessions to help their fellow believers who were in need.

³²Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. ³³With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses, sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. ³⁵They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

*This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading: 1 John 1:1--2:2

The opening of this letter serves as a reality check. The reality of God is light, but our confessed reality has been sin. God cleanses us from our sinful reality through Christ's death so that we live in fellowship with Christ and walk in God's light.

¹We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—

Second Sunday of Easter—April 11, 2021—9:45am Worship via Zoom

²this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us—³we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with God's Son Jesus Christ. ⁴We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

⁵This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in whom there is no darkness at all. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with God while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; ⁷but if we walk in the light as God is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus God's Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we have not sinned, we make God a liar, and whose word is not in us.

^{2:1}My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; ²and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel: John 20:19-31 (English)

The story of Easter continues as the risen Jesus appears to his disciples. His words to Thomas offer a blessing to all who entrust themselves in faith to the risen Lord.

¹⁹When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Judeans, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁰After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." ²²When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

²⁴But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.”

²⁶A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.”

²⁸Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” ²⁹Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”

³⁰Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Assistant to the Bishop, Virginia Synod

The Offering: We bring our gifts to God.

God our Father, with thanksgiving for your many gifts to us, we offer ourselves to you.

Take our bodies and minds, our work time and free time, our dealings with others, with family and friends. Take our dreams and our doubts, our hopes and our fears. Accept us and use us in the work of your kingdom.

The Prayers

In peace, let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy

For the peace from above, and the health of our souls, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the churches of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the Church, your people, and for all who offer their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Christ, have mercy.

For the sick and the suffering, for those in prison, for the troubled in mind or spirit, let us pray to the Lord. Christ, have mercy.

For those who travel, for all in danger, for our loved ones in other places, let us pray to the Lord. Christ, have mercy.

For Papua New Guinea and its leaders, for the United States and its leaders, and for all peoples on earth, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Second Sunday of Easter—April 11, 2021—9:45am Worship via Zoom

For all useful work, for those who create beauty, for those who spread joy, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For reasonable weather, for seed-time and harvest, for all products of the earth, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord. Amen.

Peace

+Meal+

God feeds us with the presence of Jesus Christ.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy, living, and loving God, we praise you for creating the heavens and the earth.

We bless you for bringing Noah and his family through the waters of the flood, for freeing your people Israel from the bonds of slavery, and for sending your Son to be our Redeemer.

We give you thanks for Jesus who, living among us, healed the sick, fed the hungry, and with a love stronger than death, gave his life for others.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Second Sunday of Easter—April 11, 2021—9:45am Worship via Zoom

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his life-giving death and glorious resurrection, we await your promised life for all this dying world.

Breathe your Spirit on us and on this bread and cup: carry us in your arms from death to life, that we may live as your chosen ones, clothed in the righteousness of Christ.

Through him all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, both now and forever. Amen

Lord's Prayer

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Communion

The risen Christ invites us to this table.
Come, eat, and be satisfied.

Where possible, commune one another saying “the body of Christ, given for you” and “the blood of Christ, shed for you.”

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray.

A brief silence is kept.

Wellspring of joy, through this meal you have put gladness in our hearts. Satisfy the hunger still around us, and send us as joyful witnesses, that your love may bring joy to the hearts of all people, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

+ Sending +

God blesses us and sends us in mission to the world.
